Enhanced Due Diligence?

AN EXAMINATION OF CANADA'S PLEDGE TO STOP UNRWA TEACHERS FROM INCITING JIHADIST TERRORISM AND ANTISEMITISM

Introduction

This report examines what Canada, in its new role as a major donor to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA), should do to stop the organization from continuing to employ school teachers, principals and other staffers who support terrorism and antisemitism. Canada had promised to exercise “enhanced due diligence” on UNRWA, and assured that it had “robust control measures” in place.

The report exposes 60 Facebook pages operated by UNRWA schools, school teachers, principals, and other employees of UNRWA, which incite to terrorism or antisemitism. The report is divided by region, and includes UNRWA staffers in Lebanon, Jordan, Gaza and Syria. These cases of incitement are additional to the 30 revealed by UN Watch in 2015. More examples are found by UN Watch every day.

The promotion of racial hatred and violence by UNRWA staff constitutes a gross breach of their neutrality obligations as enshrined in the UN Charter and in UN and UNRWA Staff Rules and Regulations. Even more alarming than the Facebook posts themselves, however, is the fact that UNRWA hires and employs racist staff, and places the education of impressionable Palestinian youth in their hands. Canada would never tolerate the employment of racist teachers in its own schools.

In the wake of Canada's decision to fund UNRWA and its public commitment to hold the organization accountable for neutrality violations, the government of Prime Minister Justin Trudeau must turn its words into actions. At a minimum, Canada must demand the immediate dismissal of any UNRWA employee who publicly advocates terrorism or antisemitism.

Methodology and Scope of Research

This report is based on information that has been displayed publicly on Facebook, obtained by searching for UNRWA-related key words. Because many Facebook users restrict their posts from the public, UN Watch was not able to examine most UNRWA staff profiles. Furthermore, because UNRWA does not provide a list of their staff, UN Watch researchers limited their review to Facebook users who specifically identified themselves as UNRWA employees, and to other Facebook pages publicly identified with UNRWA.

Accordingly, UN Watch cannot and does not represent that UNRWA neutrality breaches on social media are confined to the examples detailed in this report. The opposite is true. In our assessment, the scope of neutrality breaches by UNRWA staff is significantly higher than that reflected in the 60 cases in this report. If one counts the additional UNRWA employees who publicly endorse or share the offending material, the report implicates hundreds of UNRWA employees. Moreover, the report does not cover UNRWA employees who incite racism or violence in the classroom, but who do not post this information to their Facebook profiles.

Were UNRWA itself to examine its employees, on and off Facebook, it can reasonably be estimated that thousands of UNRWA employees would be implicated. “UNRWA staff is replete with Hamas supporters,” notes Michael Bell, Canada’s former ambassador to Egypt, himself an advocate of funding the organization.<sup>1</sup>

About UNRWA

UNRWA, established in December 1949 pursuant to UN General Assembly Resolution 302(IV),<sup>2</sup> is a UN agency devoted exclusively to the provision of services to Palestinians displaced as a result of Israel’s 1948 War of Independence and their descendants.<sup>3</sup> UNRWA’s main areas of operation include education, health care and social services.<sup>4</sup> It is funded almost entirely by donations, mostly from governments which, in 2015, supplied about 90% of its budget.<sup>5</sup> The organization is headed by Commissioner-General Pierre Krähenbühl, a former official of the International Red Cross, and Deputy Commissioner-General Sandra Mitchell, who has devoted her career to international humanitarian missions. Christopher Gunness is UNRWA’s controversial spokesperson.

Today, UNRWA assists approximately 5 million people designated as refugees in Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, the Gaza Strip and the West Bank.<sup>6</sup> According to UNRWA, the organization operates 692 schools with 493,000 students and 22,000 educational staff, out of approximately 30,000 total staff.<sup>7</sup> One of UNRWA’s main stated objectives is to

<sup>3</sup> UNRWA’s mandate is broader than that of the UN Refugee Agency which services all other refugees, defined as those fleeing armed conflict or persecution themselves and not including their descendants. provide basic education to Palestinian youth, to enable them to obtain necessary skills and to impart key values such as dignity and tolerance.<sup>8</sup>

While UNRWA provides important services to the Palestinian population, it is viewed by some as an impediment to peace because it exacerbates the refugee problem, for example by treating the descendants of those displaced in 1948 as refugees. Questions have been raised about the neutrality of UNRWA facilities and staff.<sup>9</sup> UNRWA came under heavy criticism during the 2014 military conflict between Israel and Hamas when Hamas weapons were found in its schools in Gaza.<sup>10</sup> UNRWA's close connections with Hamas were highlighted this past February when two UNRWA employees were reportedly elected to Hamas's political bureau.<sup>11</sup> One of them, Suhail al-Hindi, an elementary school principal and chairman of the UNRWA staff union in Gaza, was ultimately suspended pending the results of an internal investigation.<sup>12</sup>

Canada Announces Funding to UNRWA

In 2010, under former Prime Minister Stephen Harper, Canada halted its funding to UNRWA, based in part on the organization's ties to Hamas.<sup>13</sup> In November 2016, however, Prime Minister Trudeau's government announced its decision to reinstate funding to UNRWA with a $25 million grant.<sup>14</sup> Documents obtained under Canada's Access to Information Act reveal that by the time the government announced its policy change, Ottawa had already transferred the new funds to UNRWA.<sup>15</sup> And during the week between the transfer and the public announcement, the government engaged in extensive internal strategizing through numerous drafts of Q&A's, backgrounders, fact sheets—at least some of which were shared with and commented on by UNRWA in advance—on how best to present the funding decision to the public despite the well-founded concerns about UNRWA staffers' ties to Hamas.<sup>16</sup>

A review of the internal government communications shows that the government glossed over specific allegations against UNRWA, claiming that they were unfounded or had been addressed, without explaining why or how.

For example, a detailed Canadian Q&A attached to a November 14, 2016 email states that “UNRWA has taken direct action” to address staff misuse of social media.<sup>17</sup> Yet the 60 cases of incitement to antisemitism and terrorism documented below indicate that UNRWA's response to the issue has been grossly deficient.

Another Canadian Q&A claims that allegations about UNRWA staff unions including Hamas members are “unsubstantiated” and that the staff union elections “have been monitored and reviewed.”<sup>18</sup> That claim is contradicted by the election of Suhail al-Hindi to the Hamas political bureau in February 2017. The final backgrounder published on the government's website avoids specifics, opting instead for a general statement that, “In Canada's view, UNRWA has demonstrated its commitment to addressing substantiated issues...”<sup>19</sup>

On November 16, 2016, International Development Minister Marie-Claude Bibeau presented the new policy in terms of enabling Palestinian women and children to receive health care and education. She said: “We want to see Palestinian refugee children in classrooms where they can learn universal values of tolerance and respect.”<sup>20</sup> Soon after the announcement, then foreign minister Stephane Dion made an official visit to Lebanon where he met with the Director of UNRWA Affairs in Lebanon, Hakam M. Shahawn, at the Burj Shemali refugee camp.<sup>21</sup> In his Facebook post on the

Incitement to Terrorism and Antisemitism is Pervasive at UNRWA Schools and Among UNRWA Staff on Social Media

Universal values of tolerance and respect certainly do not include incitement to terrorism and antisemitism. Yet today this type of material is easily found on UNRWA school Facebook pages and in UNRWA staff Facebook profiles. Last year, UN Watch exposed 30 examples of such posts by UNRWA staff. This report contains 60 additional examples found on public Facebook pages associated with UNRWA. As noted above, UN Watch did not conduct a comprehensive review of UNRWA staff Facebook profiles because of privacy limitations and lack of resources. Were UNRWA to conduct such a review, many more cases would surface.

The instances of incitement in this report include UNRWA teachers, staffers and institutions celebrating the terrorist kidnapping of Israeli teenagers, cheering rockets being fired at Israeli civilian centers, endorsing various forms of violence including random knife and vehicular attacks against Israeli civilians, erasing Israel from the map, praising Hitler and posting his photo, and posting overtly antisemitic videos, caricatures, and statements.

In this report, we provide many examples of UNRWA schools hosting student events and activities proudly celebrating and endorsing terrorism targeting Israeli civilians. While we only know about events like these that are documented on Facebook, we suspect that there are many more such terrorist-supporting events hosted and promoted by UNRWA schools and staff which simply are not publicized. Below are some examples that we did find:

- The Facebook page of UNRWA's Manshiet Bani Hashim school applauds the wave of fires that struck Israel in November 2016, many of which were started by arson terrorists.<sup>23</sup> Other images on the school's page depict student artwork adorning the school which erases Israel from the map.<sup>24</sup> In February 2017, Abu

Anas Ghoban, a teacher at this school posted an image to his Facebook profile glorifying terrorism.

- Several UNRWA schools display images erasing Israel from the map, often as murals decorating the school or in displays of student artwork.<sup>25</sup> This completely negates UNRWA's claim to be educating Palestinians for peace and coexistence with Israel.
- The UNRWA schools in Jordan Facebook page promotes an annual poetry contest in conjunction with UNRWA's Nazzal school in Amman. In 2011, one young participant who is photographed holding up a knife recited a poem glorifying suicide martyrdom.<sup>26</sup>
- UNRWA's al-Qastal school in Lebanon celebrated the October 2015 knife attacks against Israeli civilians by hosting a rally, with speeches by students and teachers.<sup>27</sup>

In addition to evidence of these terrorist-supporting events outrageously sponsored by UNRWA schools, our report provides examples of inciting material posted by individual UNRWA staff members. For example:

- Mahannad Najem, an UNRWA teacher in Syria, posted an image of a dog urinating on the flag of Israel.
- Subi al-Zaber, an UNRWA teacher based in Amman, Jordan, has as his current Facebook profile picture, an image erasing Israel from the map, along with words calling to "get out of our land...get out of everything."<sup>28</sup>

- Mohamed Soliman, an English teacher at UNRWA in Syria, glorified the October 2015 terrorist knife attacks against Israeli civilians with an image turning all of Israel into a Palestinian knife, with the words “Your knife is Freedom.”<sup>29</sup> His profile also contains an image and quote of Hitler.<sup>30</sup>

These UNRWA posts are shocking in and of themselves and, of course, should be immediately removed. Yet improper use of social media is merely a symptom of a much deeper problem which must be remedied—the fact that UNRWA employs racist and terror-supporting staff to educate impressionable Palestinian children in the first place.

UNRWA Staff are Blatantly Violating UN Rules

These Facebook posts constitute a gross violation of UN and UNRWA internal policies concerning staff neutrality and impartiality.

Article 101(3) of the UN Charter states that the “paramount consideration” in employing staff is “securing the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity.” The quality of “integrity” is central to the UN Staff Rules and Staff Regulations, which require staff members to “uphold the highest standards of . . . integrity.” This includes, but is not limited to, “probity, impartiality, fairness, honesty and truthfulness in all matters affecting their work and status.”<sup>31</sup> This value is again reflected in Regulation 1.2(f) requiring staff to remain neutral and impartial, especially with respect to public pronouncements.

Moreover, UNRWA’s own International Staff Regulations expressly incorporate this UN “neutrality rule” for its staff, stating in Regulation 1.4 that staff must “avoid any action and in particular any kind of public pronouncement which may adversely reflect on their status or integrity, independence or impartiality which are required by that status.” In other places neutrality is defined as not taking sides in hostilities or engaging in “controversies of a political, racial, religious or ideological nature.”<sup>32</sup>

The incendiary Facebook posts by UNRWA personnel supporting, glorifying and legitimizing murderous anti-Israel terrorism and antisemitism is a gross violation of this duty of neutrality. These UN employees are openly taking sides in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and engaging in political, racial, religious or ideological controversies.

UNRWA May Also be in Violation of its Neutrality Obligations

As a UN humanitarian agency, UNRWA itself may also be in violation of these paramount principles of neutrality, particularly in light of the extensive evidence in our report that UNRWA facilities are used to host terrorist inciting events. Indeed, UNRWA committed to Canada to ensure neutrality and has made similar commitments to other donors.<sup>33</sup> Furthermore, on its website, UNRWA proclaims that “neutrality is critically important to United Nations humanitarian agencies.”<sup>34</sup> UNRWA further represents that “it has a legal framework for operations that requires neutrality of staff, third parties, facilities and beneficiaries” and notes donor conditions relating to neutrality.<sup>35</sup> This is followed by a list of UNRWA’s “processes and mechanisms” to ensure staff neutrality, including interviews, meetings, monitoring and investigations. But none of this directly addresses the problem of incitement to antisemitism or terrorism (whether online or in the classroom).<sup>36</sup>

Regrettably, when we exposed 30 similar cases of online incitement last year, the response of UNRWA spokesman Chris Gunness was to lash out at UN Watch, and to deny or downplay the problem. Only after months of sustained media attention did the UN spokesman in New York announce quietly that a few employees had been suspended.<sup>37</sup> The identities of the perpetrators, or the duration of their suspensions, were never disclosed.

In any event, whatever disciplinary action UNRWA took plainly was not effective—today’s UN Watch report shows that the conduct is continuing unabated throughout UNRWA’s facilities across the Middle East. That so many UNRWA employees continue to publicly display Facebook posts which celebrate radical Islamic terrorism and incite antisemitism demonstrates UNRWA is failing to take the issue seriously, and that its employees know that. Likewise, the senior UNRWA echelon’s daily political advocacy targeting Israel—an anomalous practice and breach of neutrality among humanitarian agencies worldwide—creates an overall atmosphere in the organization where teachers clearly feel comfortable erasing the Jewish state from the map.

In response to an earlier version of this report released in the United States in February 2017, UNRWA spokesman Chris Gunness issued a general statement that UNRWA takes allegations of neutrality violations seriously and “will take disciplinary action where appropriate,” but again refused to detail whether any disciplinary measures had been or would be taken and against whom.

While some of the UNRWA staff’s Facebook posts exposed by UN Watch have since been removed, this fails to address the core problem of UNRWA employing antisemitic and terrorist-supporting teachers in the first place, and hosting terrorist-supporting events at its facilities. We are not aware that UNRWA has dismissed any of the UNRWA staff featured in this report or that it has undertaken a comprehensive review of UNRWA staff social media profiles for inciting material. In fact, as indicated in Part II, it is clear that a number of the perpetrators identified by us in our February report are still employed by UNRWA and still post antisemitic content on his Facebook profile. (See infra, e.g., case L19, “Mohamad Fahed, UNRWA Teacher, Continues to Glorify Hamas and Incite Against Jews.”)

UNRWA’s responses show that it is doing the bare minimum to look good—to give the appearance of taking action—while ignoring the magnitude of the problem and its more serious underpinnings: the fact that UNRWA continues to hire and employ these individuals. UNRWA’s failure to take meaningful action on this issue, particularly after having been supplied with documented examples, at the very least renders it complicit in its staff members’ misconduct.

Canada Must Act to Ensure UNRWA’s Compliance with Neutrality

In renewing funding to UNRWA, the Canadian government committed to apply “stringent due diligence and accountability measures” to UNRWA, including “ongoing oversight, regular site visits, a systematic screening process, and strong anti-terrorism provisions in funding agreements.”<sup>38</sup> The government further assured that it would hold UNRWA to its neutrality obligations by ensuring it provides the necessary social media training to UNRWA staff and that the government would “respond promptly if cases of inappropriate social media use occur.” Canada also represented that as “an engaged member of UNRWA’s Advisory Commission,” it would work with UNRWA to advance ongoing reforms and would be actively involved in oversight.

Therefore, at a minimum, Canada has a duty to ensure that UNRWA lives up to its obligations as a UN humanitarian organization, including its duty of neutrality, and that it implements its obligations for social media training and accountability for its staff.

We question whether Canada is doing enough in this regard. Following our release of the February 2017 version of this report, Canada’s Ramallah representative, Douglas Proudfoot tweeted “Discussing #neutrality with @UNRWA #WestBank Director Scott Anderson.” But we have not seen any concrete action taken by UNRWA to tackle the racism among its staff, and we continue to find examples of antisemitic and terrorist inciting material at UNRWA facilities and on UNRWA staff Facebook pages.

Duty to Uphold Canadian Values of Opposing Promotion of Racism and Hate

Beyond Canada's specific undertakings with respect to UNRWA, Canada is also a signatory to the International Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Racial Discrimination and has strong domestic anti-discrimination and anti-incitement laws which have been used to keep racist teachers out of the classroom in Canada.

- Section 319 of the Criminal Code of Canada prohibits willfully inciting or promoting hatred in public against an identifiable group. In the Keegstra case, Canada's Supreme Court upheld a Section 319 conviction against a teacher for making antisemitic statements in the classroom. Keegstra had described Jews as "money loving," power hungry" and "child killers," and claimed they were to blame for historical calamities.<sup>39</sup> UNRWA teachers who do the same or worse cannot be granted impunity.
- Section 5 of the Canadian Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination on the basis of religion or ancestry. In 1996, the Supreme Court of Canada relied on this provision to uphold the decision of a school board to fire a teacher who had made public antisemitic statements while off duty, finding that the resulting infringement on the teacher's freedom of expression was justifiable.<sup>40</sup> UNRWA teachers who do the same or worse, in the classroom or on Facebook, should also be fired.

More recent cases indicate that Canada continues to demand its teachers refrain from publicly expressing racist views. In 2007, the Canadian College of Teachers found a teacher linked to white supremacists and neo-Nazis who had made repeated racist statements outside of the classroom guilty of professional misconduct and revoked his teaching license.<sup>41</sup> In December 2014, a Winnipeg high school teacher was suspended for making derogatory comments on Facebook about aboriginal people.<sup>42</sup> In September 2015, an Ontario high school fired a teacher who had tweeted extensively against hijabs, prayer and Sharia law.<sup>43</sup>

Canada must demand that UNRWA adhere to the same standards for rejecting racism in the classroom that Canada applies to its own teachers. Similarly, other UNRWA donors categorically reject racism in the classroom. In October 2015, the UK government banned a teacher from the classroom for life over an antisemitic Facebook post.<sup>44</sup> In the U.S. in November 2016, the Oberlin College Board of Trustees dismissed an assistant professor for anti-Semitic Facebook posts.<sup>45</sup> Palestinian students deserve the same rights that UNRWA's donors grant their own. Thus, beyond ensuring social media and neutrality training for all UNRWA staff, Canada must insist that UNRWA implement a zero-tolerance policy for public display of antisemitism or terrorist support by its staff—whether in the classroom or online.

Recommendations and Call to Action for Prime Minister Justin Trudeau:

In light of the foregoing, UN Watch urges Prime Minister Justin Trudeau to:

- (a) Demand that UNRWA adopt a zero-tolerance policy for employees who incite racism or murder—whether on or offline—by immediately terminating them, like Canada does with its own teachers, and to prominently post on its website these and other actions it is taking to root out this insidious conduct by UN staff;
- (b) Demand that UN Secretary-General António Guterres and UNRWA Commissioner-General Pierre Krähenbühl immediately condemn their employees' incitement to terrorism and antisemitism;
- (c) Demand that UNRWA conduct a thorough investigation of its facilities and put an immediate stop to all antisemitic or terrorist-inciting activities and images found there;
- (d) Demand that UNRWA undertake a comprehensive review of the social media profiles of all UNRWA staff for content that violates UN and UNRWA neutrality;
- (e) Work with UNRWA to implement effective monitoring and controls to ensure the neutrality of UNRWA facilities and staff and make public its activities in this regard;
- (f) Establish, in concert with other like-minded donor states, an independent, international commission of inquiry with the mandate to examine the nature and extent of incitement to antisemitism and terrorism among UNRWA teachers and other staff, and to recommend remedial action;
- (g) Demand that UNRWA be in full compliance with its neutrality obligations prior to releasing any further funds to UNRWA; and
- (h) Determine and disclose which of the people identified in 2015 and 2017 by UN Watch of having posted antisemitism and terrorist incitement on their Facebook profiles is still employed by UNRWA, and thereby potentially being funded by Canada.

L1: GHANEM NAIM GHONEIM, TEACHER AT UNRWA, VENERATES “WONDERFUL” HITLER

Ghanem Naim Ghoneim, who identifies himself on his Facebook profile as a teacher at UNRWA, has two photos posted in his public Facebook page of Adolf Hitler, whom he calls “our beloved,” and “Hitler the great.”

The UNRWA teacher notes that Hitler was close with Palestinian Arab leader Amin al-Husseini, and then adds, “God bless Hitler.”

Commenting on one of his Hitler photos, two of Mr. Ghoneim’s apparent UNRWA students praise the post, with one saying “God bless you, teacher!” and the other saying “Nice one, teacher.”

The UNRWA teacher also celebrates Hamas rocket fire on Tel Aviv, to hit “the Jews.”

The pro-Hamas post grossly violates UNRWA employees’ duty of neutrality, and the antisemitic posts violate their duty to reject racism in all its forms.

L1.2 Commentary:

Samer Abed Al Rahim addressed Ghanem Naim Ghoneim as “Dear Professor” and expressed agreement with Ghoneim that Hitler is “The best in the world” and “more honorable than leaders of the Arabs today.” Rahim lists himself as a former student of UNRWA’s Sibling Training Center.

Ceasefire. Only under the resistance's (Hamas) conditions.

L2: OMAR ASAAD, UNRWA EMPLOYEE, REVERES HITLER

Omar Asaad, who identifies himself on his Facebook profile as an UNRWA employee (see above), features on his public Facebook page a picture of Hitler, with this caption: “I could have killed all the world’s Jews, but I left some so that the world would know why I killed them.”

This post prompted an UNRWA community discussion on Facebook about Hitler and his Nazi genocide against the Jews, with UNRWA school principal Ahmad Nasser commenting that God “should not have left any of them.”

The hateful, racist discussion among multiple UNRWA employees—including a senior UNRWA education official—is evidence of a system-wide UNRWA culture of tolerating antisemitism, and the lack of any meaningful disciplinary action by UNRWA.

Mr. Assad’s antisemitic posts, and those added by his UNRWA colleagues, grossly violate UNRWA employees’ duty to reject racism in all its forms.

L3: KHADER AWAD, TEACHER AT UNRWA, CALLS FOR THE MURDER OF JEWS

Khader Awad, who identifies himself on his Facebook profile as an UNRWA teacher (see above), features on his public Facebook page an image of a Jew with three guns and a knife trained on his head; the Hebrew caption reads “Blood = Blood. #KillThem.” In Arabic, it says “Kill the settlers.”

A second photo, which Mr. Awad made as his cover photo, shows a Hamas terrorist in front of a scene of destruction in Israel, with the words in Hebrew and Arabic “We are waiting.”

These posts supporting the murder of Jews and Hamas terrorism grossly violate the duty of neutrality applicable to all UNRWA employees.

L4: HATEM ASAAD, UNRWA EMPLOYEE, EXALTS TERRORISTS

Hatem Asaad identifies himself on his Facebook profile as an UNRWA employee (see above), and can be seen below with his UNRWA pupils (image L4.1). His public Facebook page shows a poster glorifying the faces of two terrorists, Rassan Abu Jamal and Udei Abu Jamal, who killed four Israeli Jews in a Jerusalem synagogue on November 18, 2014.

These posts supporting the murder of Israelis grossly violate the duty of neutrality applicable to all UNRWA employees.

L5: MOHAMMAD ALSAYYED, ASSISTANT HEAD TEACHER AT UNRWA SCHOOL, CELEBRATES ABDUCTION AND MURDER OF ISRAELIS

Mohammad Alsayyed, who identifies himself on his Facebook profile as an Assistant Head Teacher at UNRWA (see above), features numerous violent posts on his public Facebook page, all in gross breach of UNRWA’s duty of neutrality.

- Post L5.1 shows Hadar Goldin, an IDF officer captured and killed by Hamas.
- In post L5.2, this senior UNRWA teacher praises the “awesome kidnapping” of three Israeli teenagers famously killed in a Hamas terrorist operation which precipitated the 2014 Gaza war, and shows Gilad Shalit, the IDF soldier kidnapped from Israel in 2006 and held incommunicado in Gaza for five years.

L6: MAHA HAMID, UNRWA TEACHER, PUBLISHES HAMAS PROPAGANDA GLORIFYING 'MARTYRS'

Maha Hamid, who identifies herself on her Facebook profile as an UNRWA teacher (see above), features a video in her public Facebook page (see Post L6.1) from the Shehab News Agency of Hamas.

The video commemorates Hamas terrorists as “martyrs,” and celebrates the tunnels used by Hamas to carry out attacks. It includes footage of one such attack, which killed several Israeli soldiers. Below are several screenshots of the video, as well as evidence of Maha Hamid posting the video to her wall (see first image below).

All of these posts by UNRWA teacher Maha Hamid violate the duty of neutrality applicable to all UNRWA employees, and negate the right to life protected in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

L7: LOTFI GHUNEIM, UNRWA EMPLOYEE, PRAISES CAR-RAMMING TERRORIST AS “HERO”

Lotfi Ghuneim, who identifies himself on his Facebook profile as an UNRWA employee (see above), features on his public Facebook page numerous images that support terrorism.

The first post (L7.1) depicts the Palestinian perpetrator of a car-ramming terrorist attack—which caused one death and 15 injuries—and exalts the terrorist, Ibrahim el-Akkari, as a “hero.”

The second and third images show the body of a murdered rabbi, one of the victims of the November 18 attack on a synagogue in Jerusalem.

All three of these posts by Mr. Ghuneim constitute a gross violation of the duty of neutrality applicable to UNRWA employees, and negate the right to life protected in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

L9: GHASSAN FATHI, UNRWA INSTRUCTOR, POSTS ANTISEMITIC VIDEO

Ghassan Fathi identifies himself on his Facebook profile as an employee at UNWRA's Siblin Training Center (above). He published the video (Post L9.1) below in October 2015. The video is an interview of Wassim al-Sissy, an Egyptian urologist. Al-Sissy asserts that America has become "putty in the hands of Global Zionism." In the video, the speaker approves of the notion that "the Jews in our country have gained control of our stomachs, our minds and our urges. All that is left is to change the name New York to Jew York." He then falsely purports to quote Benjamin Franklin as saying, "The undoing of America will be at the hands of the Jews."

It should be noted that all of the above UNRWA teachers who incite terrorism and antisemitism are poisoning the minds of Palestinian students at UNRWA schools.

Post L15.2: Fahed posted a picture of a Palestinian boy holding up three fingers towards Israeli soldiers, a symbol that is widely recognized as a celebration of the death of three Jewish boys whom Hamas operatives kidnapped and murdered in June 2014. This post highlights that UNRWA's Siblin Training Center is a hotbed of extremism, as seven teachers and students at UNRWA, or at UNRWA's Siblin Training Center, all "liked" the photo. Extremism is mainstream within this UNRWA circle.

Bilal Allan, who identifies himself on his Facebook profile as an UNRWA employee (above), published a video this past June propounding classical anti-Semitic claims. حينما تسأل ماذا فعل النازيون في اليهود .. عليك أن تسأل ماذا فعل اليهود في ألمانيا أولا ..

لقد دمروا الاقتصاد الألماني لصالح فريق "الحلفاء/الغرب" حتى فقد الملايين أموالهم في معاملات اليهود البنكية الربوية
سيطروا على الإعلام والصحافة ووضعوا أنفسهم فوق رؤوس الألمان
زرعوا ثقافة الإباحية الجنسية المطلقة وكل أنواع الشذوذ الجنسي وكان ذلك صنعة للألمان حينها

When you ask what the Nazis did to the Jews.. you must first ask what the Jews did to Germany.

They destroyed the German economy for the benefit of the "Allies/West" and millions lost their money in bank transactions because of Jewish usury.

They also took control over the media...

S1.1 Full Video Transcription:

It's very simple. You see, everybody says the harm that the Germans have done to the Jews. It's grossly exaggerated, it's true the Nazis – the nationalist socialist party – had some dirty racist points in its otherwise very beautiful program, which was very successful all in all.

But it was – they had some nasty points against the Jews, this is true. And they were, in the third Reich and in Europe during the Second World War, between 100,000 and 600,000 Jews have been killed directly or indirectly because of the national socialist system. This number is ridiculous in comparison to what the French did in Algeria, the Jews have done in Palestine, and especially the British, Americans and the Russians have done to their people. They have killed millions.

Now what did the Jews do? When you ask what the Germans have done to the Jews you must always ask what have the Jews done to the Germans. Since 1850 when the Jews got all the political rights in Germany in the German Reich they have done 3 things, which are really dramatic.

Number one: They were a small minority of 2% of the population – at the time when Hitler came to power 500,000 within 60 million German people. 500,000 within 60 million. They were a small minority. This small minority managed to control about 50% of the media, gave [sic] about 70% of all judges, to have a tremendous influence on movie and theater, and in literature. They were overrepresented. This is one thing, they were absolutely overrepresented, as today in England, France and in United States.

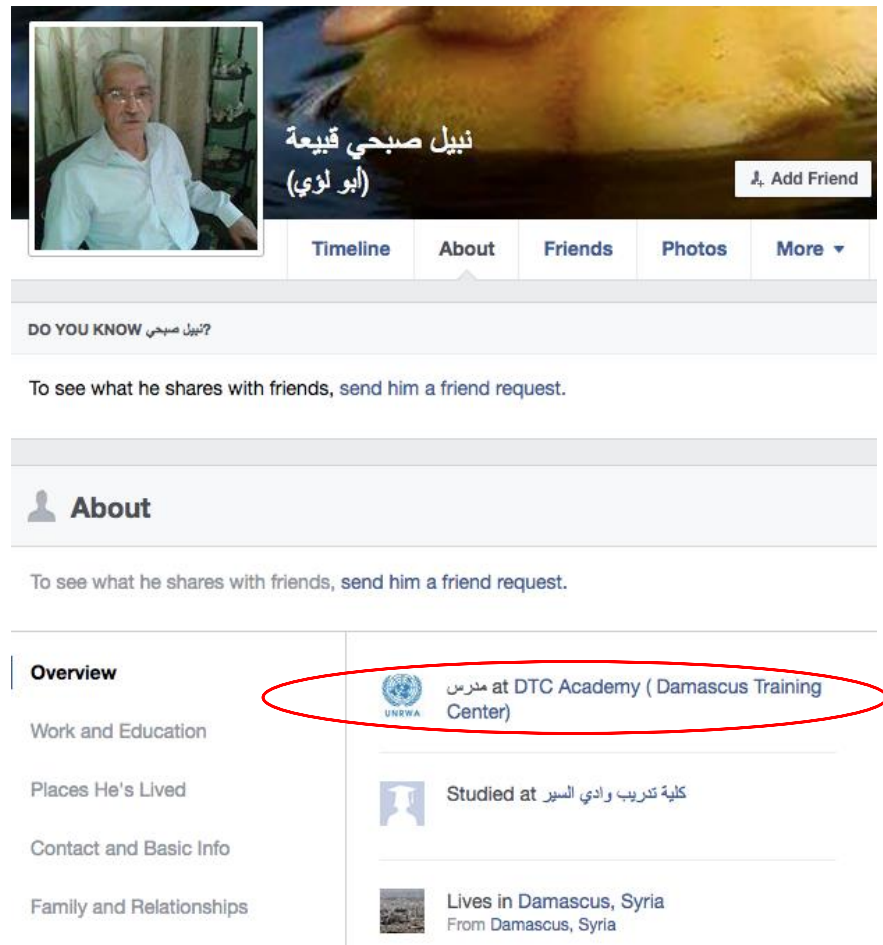

Secondly, Jews were at the origin of a lot of catastrophic financial bank crashes in Germany between 1870 and 1920. In that time, they made a lot of crashes which have – this is all documented, it's not Nazi propaganda or antisemitic or Arab propaganda, it's a lot of books have been published even by Jewish Germans about this problem – they have millions of German fathers have lost their incomes, their fortune, their savings because of these Jewish gangsters, bank gangsters, and speculation people.

Then the third point – which was psychologically the most dangerous of all – they have introduced into German art and culture and theater and movie decadence immorality. The first homosexual theatre plays were made in Berlin in the 1920s, the first adultery theater plays were made in the 1880s, 1890s (100 years ago) by Jewish authors. Adultery, then sexual perversions of all sorts: sadism, masochism, lot of homosexuality, all these things. And then decadent art, and art which is absolutely ridiculous – so-called modern art – it was all pushed by Jewish intellectuals.

And this created among the German people a big revolt. And also they wrote books ridiculing Christianity, ridiculing Jesus. I mean it was something like Salman Rushdie with the Muslims. And there were furious reactions in Germany and the Nazis of course benefited from it. And this is why Adolf Hitler came to power. And you see then Hitler, in 2 years from '33 to '35 – 6 million Germans were unemployed and within two years he brought 6 million unemployed Germans back into their jobs. He created 6 million jobs, it's incredible, in 2 years and this is the reason why the '6 million' thing came.

You see, after the Second World War, the Zionists said we must give a counter-propaganda to this positive 6 million who have found six million jobs – positive – we must make something negative, 6 million corpses. And so came this fantastic number of 6 million, which is in every newspaper in everything.

L18: UNRWA'S AL-QASTAL SCHOOL HOLDS STUDENT RALLY IN SUPPORT OF KNIFE INTIFADA AGAINST ISRAELIS

UNRWA's Al-Qastal Secondary School, located in Baalbek, Lebanon, or an administrator acting in its name, operates the Facebook account featured above. In October 2015, during the beginning of an outbreak of Palestinian terrorist attacks in what later became known as the “Knife Intifada,” UNRWA Al-Qastal posted an album of photos from a “Student March” that the school held “in support of the uprising in Jerusalem.” The rally featured “cheers in support of the intifada.”

Student Demonstration at Al Jaleel Camp in Support of the Jerusalem Intifada

As an initiative launched by Al-Qastal Secondary School (Mixed Gender), a large popular demonstration was held in Al Jaleel Camp in support of the Jerusalem Intifada.

The demonstration launched from the school premises. It included representatives from a number of resistance groups, popular committees, a large number of parents in addition to hundreds of students.

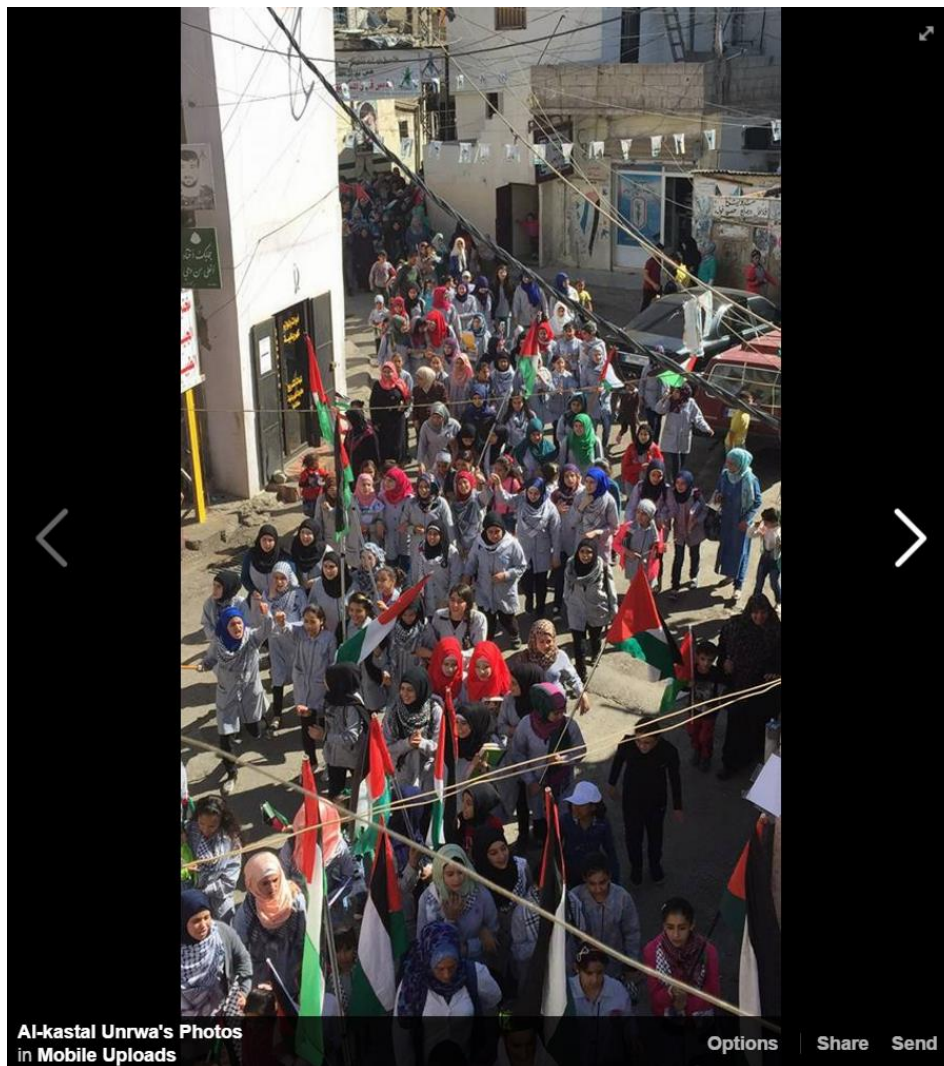

The demonstrators waved Palestinian flags and chanted slogans in support of the Intifada as it passed through the streets of the camp coming to an end outside the UNRWA offices at the camp.

A number of speeches were given by students Ahmad Abdul Qader, Shayma' Taha, and Naseebah Abu Shakra as well as a speech by the representative of the popular committees, Omar Qassem.

Moreover, the student, Juma Juma, delivered a petition on behalf of all students addressing the Secretary General of the United Nations, asking him to intervene and end the Zionist aggression.

L19: MOHAMAD FAHED, UNRWA TEACHER, CONTINUES TO GLORIFY HAMAS AND INCITE AGAINST JEWS

Mohamad Fahed, whose public endorsement of the murder of three Israeli teens and support for the Hamas terrorist group were made known to UNRWA two months ago in our February 2017 report (Case No. L15), still refers to himself as an employee of UNRWA’s Siblin Training Center in Lebanon. This means that UNRWA, despite its claims of “zero tolerance,” has not fired this overt advocate of terrorism. As shown below, he continues to share antisemitic posts, and to praise Hamas.

Mohamad Fahed’s Facebook: <https://www.Facebook.com/mohamad.fahed.7>

Post L19.1: On March 22, 2017, Fahed mourned the the death of Hamas founder Ahmed Yassin, on the 13th anniversary of the terrorist leader's death.

Ghanem Naim Ghoneim, despite being identified by UN Watch two months ago in our Feb. 2017 report (under case #L1) for posting pictures of “our beloved Hitler,” still shows himself as an UNRWA teacher, and recently used Facebook to check in to an UNRWA training session. This calls into question claims by UNRWA and by donor states like Canada that they are exercising “enhanced due diligence” regarding the continued employment of racist teachers.

Mr. Ghoneim’s Facebook page: <https://www.Facebook.com/ghanemghoneim>

Post L21.1: On March 13, 2017, Ghoneim checked in to an “UNRWA & UNDP Training” session in Beirut.

J14: FACEBOOK PAGE FOR UNRWA SCHOOLS IN JORDAN SHOWS CHILD WIELDING KNIFE IN UNRWA CLASS

UNRWA Schools International – Jordan (الاردن - الدولية الغوث وكالة مدارس) is a Facebook page that provides information on UNRWA schools in Jordan to teachers, students and the broader community. The page has over 37,000 likes and frequently posts internal UNRWA documents, such as school calendars, class rosters, and lesson plans.

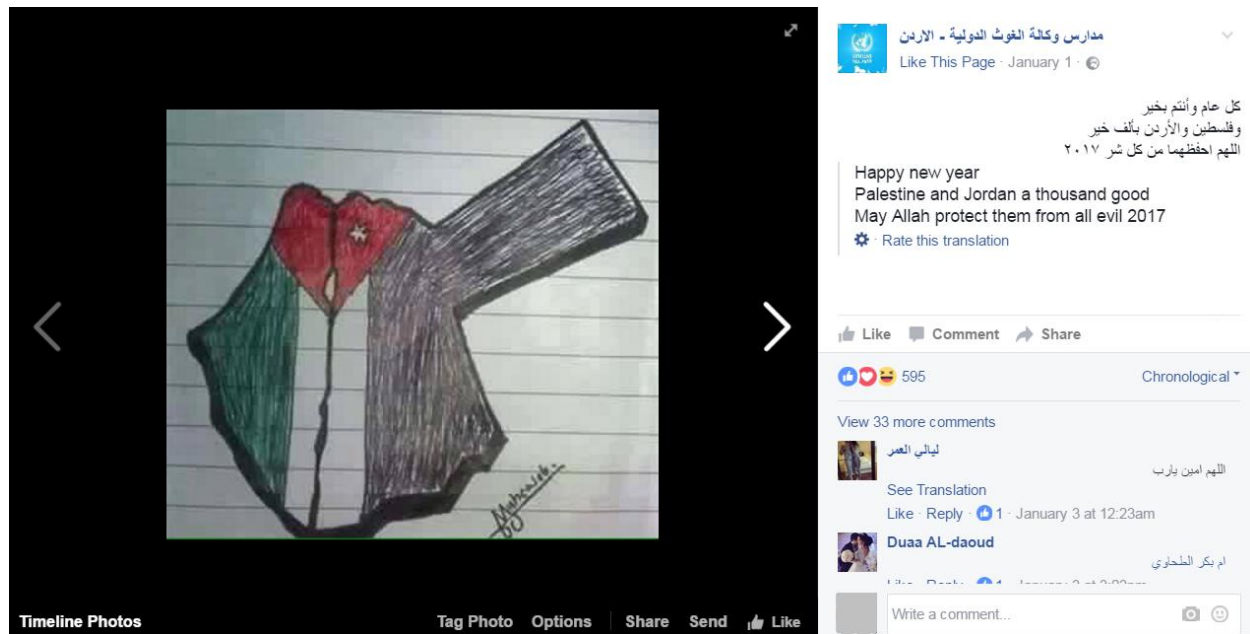

The UNRWA Jordan page also posts images that incite hatred, including those that erase Israel from the map. In one case, this UNRWA account posted an album from a teacher-administered poetry contest for students, which honors the Palestinian “martyr” Abdulrahim Mahmud. Images posted include a boy wielding a knife inside of an UNRWA classroom, with his UNRWA teachers grinning in the background.

Post J14.5: UNRWA Jordan posts an image of an UNRWA student wielding a knife in the classroom, while wrapped in a keffiyeh. As revealed in the comment posted by UNRWA Jordan, the knife-wielding boy is a student of the UNRWA school, and the men in the background who are smirking in approval are UNRWA teachers.

Post J14.7: The comment by UNRWA Jordan on this post reveals that the boy dressed in a keffiyeh, and equipped with a knife inside the classroom, is reciting the poem “The Martyr” by Abdulrahim Mahmud.
<https://www.Facebook.com/unrwa0schools/photos/a.119682381444792.27812.109667055779658/119682541444776/?type=3&permPage=1>

Exhibit J14.8: As disclosed by UNRWA Jordan in the comment section of Post J14.7, the poem read by the young UNRWA student wielding a knife in Post J14.5 is “The Martyr” by Abdulrahim Mahmud. The poem, as its title suggests, details the glorified death sought by a martyr.

As this is a 5th and 6th Grade UNRWA poetry contest, the boy is likely only 10 or 11 years old. His UNRWA teachers smirk at him wielding a knife and teach him to recite a poem that includes the lines “I see my death, but I rush to it” and “[L]ife has no value to me!”

When a U.N. school for Palestinians repeatedly promotes the goal of Palestine from the river to the sea, erases Israel from the map, and indoctrinates young and vulnerable boys to embrace martyrdom, this amounts to dangerous incitement to hatred and terrorism.

The Martyr

I will carry my soul in my hand
And throw it in the valleys of death
It is either a life that makes a friend happy
Or a death that makes an enemy angry
The noble man's soul has two goals
To die or to achieve its dreams
What is life if I don't live
Feared and what I have is forbidden to others
When I speak, all the world listens
And my voice echoes among people
I see my death, but I rush to it
This is the death of men
And whoever desires an honorable death
Then this is it
How am I patient with the spiteful
And patient with all this pain?
Is it because of fear?
While life has no value to me!
Or humiliation? While I am contemptuous!
I will throw my heart at my enemies' faces
And my heart is iron and fire!
I will protect my land with the edge of the sword
So my people will know that I am the man

UNRWA's Nazzal Prep Boys School in Amman, Jordan has a publicly viewable group on Facebook with 610 members. Teachers and students regularly post communication about the school, including documents such as lesson plans and class rosters.

Disturbingly, however this UNRWA group also posts incitement, including images of: (1) A "Nakba Day" rally at the school, in which there is a call to "cleanse their land from the freak stench of Zionism"; and images of a large mural on the school premises that erases Israel from the map.
