S-16/... The human rights situation in the Syrian Arab Republic in the context of recent events

The Human Rights Council,

Reaffirming the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and international human rights treaties to which they are party, including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and that all States are bound to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling Article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights with respect to rights that may not be derogated from under any circumstances, even in public emergency,

Expressing deep regret at the deaths of hundreds of people in connection with the recent and ongoing political protests in Syria, and grave concern with respect to alleged deliberate killings, arrests, and instances of torture of peaceful protestors by the Syrian authorities,

Noting the recent statement made by the Secretary-General of the United Nations calling for an independent, transparent and effective investigation into the situation in Syria,

Noting also the recent statements by United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, and certain UN Special Rapporteurs with respect to Syria which call for an end to killings, as well as for accountability, protection of human rights defenders and respect for freedom of expression,

Further noting the stated intention of the Syrian Arab Republic to take steps for reform, and urging the Syrian Arab Republic to take urgent and concrete measures to meet the legitimate demands of its people, including by enlarging the scope of political participation and dialogue, following through on the abolition of the High State Security Court and the lifting of measures restricting the exercise of fundamental freedoms,

Recalling that General Assembly resolution 60/251 requires Member States to take into account the contribution of candidates for membership to the Human Rights Council to the promotion and protection of human rights when electing new members,
