Mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers

The Human Rights Council,

PP1: Recalling all previous resolutions and decisions of the Human Rights Council as well as those of the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on the independence of the judiciary and on the integrity of the judicial system,

PP2: Convinced that an independent and impartial judiciary, an independent legal profession, an objective and impartial prosecution able to perform its functions accordingly, and the integrity of the judicial system, are essential prerequisites for the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms and the application of the rule of law, and for ensuring fair trials, without any discrimination,

PP3: Condemning the increasingly frequent attacks on the independence of judges, lawyers, prosecutors and court officials, in particular threats, intimidation and interference in the discharge of their professional functions

PP4: Recalling Human Rights Council resolutions 5/1 on the institution building of the Human rights Council and 5/2 on the Code of Conduct for special procedures of the Council of 18 June 2007 and stressing that the mandate holder shall discharge his or her duties in accordance with those resolutions and the annexes thereto

1. Commends the Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers for the important work undertaken in the discharge of her mandate;

2. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for a period of three years, on the same terms as provided by the Human Rights Council in its resolution 17/2;

3. Urges all Governments to cooperate with and assist the Special Rapporteur in the performance of his or her tasks, to provide all necessary information requested by him or her, to respond to communications transmitted to them by the Special Rapporteur without undue delay, and to consider responding favorably to his or her request for visits and to consider implementing his or her recommendations;

4. Encourages the United Nations, including UN specialized agencies, as well as regional organizations, national human rights institutions, independent experts, bar associations, professional associations of judges and prosecutors, non-governmental organizations and other relevant stakeholders to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Special Rapporteur in the fulfillment of his or her mandate;

5. Requests the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide the Special Rapporteur with all necessary human and financial resources for the effective fulfillment of his or her mandate;

6. Decides to continue consideration of this issue in accordance with its annual programme of work.
