The UN Watch rep says he'll email his statement to me and Matteo, but I doubt this will happen before they take the floor.

If we move them down the list, it will be extremely visible that we are applying a different rule to this debate, and just reinforce their feelings (and often allegations) of discrimination. I think they would love to go right before the SR for the extra media value, so I strongly advise keeping the list as it is - it reflects the priorities and time of sign-up, and there has never been a requirement that NGOs hand in their statements in order to take the floor. We can be prepared on the podium, for example with the language circulated by Hui this morning.

Very best,
Emma
